

Article 370

TITANIUM EDUCATION OF ENGLISH LANGUAGE PVT
LTD

WEBSITE WWW.TITANIUMEDU.COM FACE BOOK MIKESLUTITANIUM

Article 370 of the Indian constitution is a law that grants special autonomous status to Jammu and Kashmir and It relates to Temporary, Traditional and special Provisions.

Maharaja Hari Singh signed the accession papers on October 26, 1947 under which state acceded to India. The accession of Jammu and Kashmir with India was carried out on the same pattern other states acceded to it

1. Govt. of India can not enforce any law connected with jammu and Kashmir without the approval or concurrence of the state Government

2. The president of India cannot dare to issue any order under Article 356 to Jammu and Kashmir

3. Under part four of the constitution of India there is procedure for one constitutional practice, one administrative structure and one economic pattern. But under Article 370 Jammu and Kashmir has its right under its own constitution to do whatever it likes.