I usually get up at 5 O' clock then I drink a glass of water then after I gargle and brush my teeth after then I take shower and get dressed then I pray to God after that I go to college and attend lecture. I have my lunch and I play Basketball in Evening, I gossip for some time with friends and then I eat dinner. I study books while listening music then I take supper and go to bed at 11.

My hobbies are interacting with people to learn something new, reading books and cooking. Once again thank you for listening
